

Biography

Dave Scott-Morgan is a songwriter and video-maker, lead singer and guitarist with his band Morganisation and is currently running a cottage industry record label "Grimm Doo Records". He is also an inventor, software writer, commercial pilot and pastored a church for over 10 years!

Dave's musical past hails from the 'brum-beat' groups of the 60's - including MAGNUM (bass), THE UGLY'S (guitar) and the spin-off BALLS (with Steve Gibbons and Trevor Burton). His first album 'MORGAN' was produced by Lou Reizner in 1971 while Dave toured America as a folk singer. Dave's songs brought him wider notice when recorded by groups such as WISHFUL THINKING ('Hiroshima') and THE MOVE ('Something' the B-side of their number one hit 'Blackberry Way'). The song 'Hiroshima' sung by the German artist SANDRA, became a pan-European mega hit reaching No.4 in the German charts in 1991.

In the last century Dave was part of the stellar Birmingham group ELECTRIC LIGHT ORCHESTRA, and is credited on ELO's album SECRET MESSAGES plus Jeff Lynne's ARMCHAIR THEATRE solo album.

Many of Dave's songs have been recorded in collaboration with ELO keyboard player Richard Tandy: the concept album EARTH RISE; the single BERLIN and, together with guitarist Martin Smith, the compilation CD [BC COLLECTION] and charity single ACTION produced by Jeff Lynne.

Dave began composing inspirational songs in 1988: the CALL Compact Disc (1997) includes GOD'S GOOD TIME, produced by Jeff Lynne. Two further inspirational CDs, LONG WAY HOME and ANGEL LIGHT were followed by the newest release WALL TO WALL.

In 2012 Dave published his autobiography PATTERNS IN THE CHAOS and ACROSS THE DIVIDE, an album with songs that were written over several decades, covering an array of genres recorded with a wide range of musicians. This was followed with a digital album BUBBLES (only a few demo CDs have ever been manufactured).

More recently, Dave produced the 5 song E.P. 'Highland' inspired by time spent in the western highlands of Scotland. As well as working on a new album SEVEN, which is due to be released in 2019, Dave is exploring a live orchestra performance of EARTHRISE. He is also dusting off some vintage songs and collaborations with other Birmingham musicians from his archive e.g. Carl Wayne of The Move to share with members of his Top Table fan club

Dave with his wife Mandy travel the UK and beyond sharing anecdotes of his life and how he came to faith in Jesus entwined into a concert. Their shows feature toe tapping originals, rock n roll classics and quintessential ELO hits.
